Staff meeting.

The Iranian Ambassador came to see me. I had Mr. Stutesman by my side. The Ambassador said ~~that~~ he had no instructions from his Government and nothing specific he wished to discuss except to urge on the United States Government the importance of its continuing its efforts, in spite of the rupture of diplomatic relations between Iran and Great Britain, to bring about a solution of the oil problem. I told him ~~that~~ we had no intention of relaxing our interest in that regard.

FOREIGN GOVERNMENT INFORMATION

Tom Finletter came for lunch here and ~~afterwards~~ General Norstad Messrs. Barringer and Ronhovde, Tom and myself talked about the demand regarding on the part of the Scandinavian countries / the Thule airport in Greenland. For security reasons, the Department of the Air is opposed to according such rights. It was decided ~~that~~ we would sound out the Scandinavians, especially the Danes, [redacted] to see whether something could be arranged along the line of infrequent and almost token flights.

Hope and Bunny Carter, [redacted] here from Paris for a short time, called on me. I was delighted to see them.

Jamie Bonbright presented a paper for possible use as a circular telegram to state our position in [redacted] to [redacted] integration movements in Europe. It raises so many questions of a fundamental character [redacted] it seemed to me advisable to postpone final decision on it until we
